“ Soon after she and Richard moved to Buford in the 1970s, Jeri volunteered to teach the Sunday School class for the girls my age at Buford First Baptist Church. She soon became much more than a Sunday School teacher. She was a friend, a positive influence, a mentor and gave freely of her time to support and encourage all of us. I adored Jeri (and Richard), and I remain forever grateful for the love and support she gave me. She will always hold a special place in my heart. My heartfelt condolences to Brett, Kelli and her family.

“ I worked at Gwinnett Extension and she would love to come in and we would talk about her animals and what to do with the weeds in her pasture. I always enjoyed our conversations. My sympathy.

What a beautiful, spirit filled service for Jeri. The stories and jokes she played on everyone made the service upbeat and a true celebration of her life. Sending love to the Tyler family. Blessed to have time with you all.
