“ My heart is broken into a million pieces to hear that Jericha is gone. I know that she is with Jesus, and she is pain free. Her and Abby were best friends since grade school. WE loved her so much, and we will always love her and remember what a sweet angel she was. She was like part of our family. Now she is with her mom, and Jesus. She always made me laugh, she always had a joke or a story to tell. I will miss you're sweet smile. You will not be forgotten Jerica, I will miss you so much.Go rest high on that mountain. Prayers for mac and Jordan.

“ Dear Mr. Mc Crea and Family,

Words cannot describe how saddened I am about the loss of Jericha. She made me smile every time I saw her or think of her! She loved the Lord and "Mac"! (And her bracelets and bows!!). She is praising the Lord with her momma right now!! We at school are going to so miss her! We were blessed to have known her. Blessings to you all.

“ Your shining light will never fade. You were the precious child that touched so many lives with your smile, and I was blessed to be able to be in your life as babysitter, friend, and adopted mama. Your prayers were always special and I'll treasure the memories we made. I will love you forever, dear Jericha. Rest in peace, sweet one, your home now.

“ Words are not enough to express the emotions if I feel when I heard you were gone! You're a loving person who would tell it as it is and had no problem apologize when you know you cross the line. You made us happy all the time on skills. I will forever remember your smile, laugh and jokes.
Miss you Jericho! May God grant your family and everyone you've touched the fortitude to bear the loss. May your soul rest in peace.
Love, Ms Christie

“ Dear Family,
I wanted to let you know how much I enjoyed having Jericha as a student at North Gwinnett Middle school a few years ago. She made a point to talk to me any time I passed her in the hallway and she was always telling everyone how pretty they looked and how much she liked their clothes. I loved her smile! Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time.

“ Y'all probably don't know me, but my classroom at North Gwinnett Middle was next door to Jericha's homeroom (and under Jordan's), so I saw her often. She was always sweet and kind to everyone she met. She would tell me, "You are so beautiful, just like Shania Twain". My colleagues have similar memories of Jericha's generous positive affirmations. She had such a kind and gentle soul that made her a pleasure to be around. Everyone was very fond of her, and it was with heavy hearts that we learned of her passing. I just wanted to extend my condolences and best wishes to Jordan and Jericha's father during this difficult time.

“ Jericha,

You were the light of your Father's life. Whenever I would say your name in class, your brother would smile and his eyes would light up.

Bless you Angel. You loved and were loved in return.

Please look down from heaven on your Father and Brother and be a comfort to them now as you were in life.

God Bless You.

Love,

Mr. Davis
