I was a classmate of jerrys at florida southern....i remember he was always jovial and pleasant...we were in summer school at fsc and would go to clearwater beach on the weekends...i remember clearly how badly he got sunburned on his fair skin one day....dont know why all these years later i happened to think of him and found his obituary after reading his dads obituary...its sad college mates rarely stay in touch...im sorry i never stayed in touch but it appears he had a happy life

“ We share in the feelings of the loss of Jerry's presence, yet also share in the thankfulness to God for God's abiding presence in Jerry and Sandy. We thank God for choosing Jerry and for Jerry's surrender to the Gospel offer of forgiveness and empowerment in the New Life in Christ by which he lived and in which we have seen and experienced the Holy Spirit through Jerry so that people have been drawn to trust in God's promises for them as well. We know and are rejoice in that Jerry is welcomed into the everlasting reality of God's presence and still caring for Sandy from Heaven on High because God Cares for His own so much and because He promises to do even more than we can imagine by His Grace.

“ Sandy; I am so so sorry for your loss, it just seems like yesterday that we were worshiping in Friendship Baptist (or First Baptist Altamonte) and I have never forgotten the kind man that Jerry was he always set the example of how Jesus wanted us all to live. A man of God that made the world a better place and will be missed.

“ Dearest Sandy,
Our hearts are heavy for you but rejoicing for Jerry! Heaven has certainly gained a treasured child of the King! We were in Chattanooga the day of his passing. My first thought was that that was where we got Jerry's train whistle and conductor's cap he wore when he called the children for children's church at Rolling Hills! The kid's loved it! Sweet memories! You and your family are in our prayers!
Love in Christ,
Phil and Kim

“ Dearest Sandy,
We are so heartbroken for you and your family, yet rejoicing for Jerry as he stands in the presence of the Lord! Heaven has certainly gained a precious child of the King! We were actually in the Chattanooga Choo Choo hotel when we heard of his passing. That is actually where we got his train whistle and conductor's hat he used to call the children to Children's Church at Rolling Hills! They loved that! Sweet memories of a life well lived!
You are in our prayers! We love you! Phil and Kim Weaver

“ Jerry will be missed by so many. Personally, I will miss him coming into the kitchen at church and telling me he did not drink coffee because he was afraid it would stunt his growth. Then he would laugh. His love of people, his love for family, his love for God and his love for the church will be missed.
Prayers that wonderful memories will help you weather the grief that you have.
In the love of Jesus-Jim and Ky
