“ Jesse Williams was a member of our club, House2House. I was a member of the Midwest chapter and met Jesse in 2005, on a Super Bowl cruise the Southeast chapter had arranged. I could see that he was a man of God and of good standards. I moved to the Atlanta area in 2018 and joined the Southeast chapter. I broke bread with Jesse at my home, as well as his. We shared good times. I really got to know Jesse on a road trip to Jacksonville for a football game. I found him to be a warm and outstanding individual. He will truly be missed by me and my other club members. It seemed like we were really just getting to really know each other. God bless you Jesse. We all love and miss you. Kevin Hamlin

“ To the family of Jesse Williams, may God give you peace and cover you during this sorrowful time. Cast all your burdens on God, because he cares for you.

DAV, Chapter 90 will miss our friend and Veteran Comrade Jesse Williams. Words cannot explain how much he meant to us and our organization. He served as the Sergeant-At-Arms, Chapter Service Officer and on our Monetary Assistance program. He loved helping veterans, he always had kinds words to say to others and we enjoyed his laughter throughout the week. You see, there are not many people who are called to serve that answers the call. Jesse did. We will forever be grateful!

Matthew 5:9 says "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God."

“ To Reverend Elaine Williams and family from Ted and Sharon Peters, we began a friendship forged when we met at the oncologists office where Ted and Jesse were doing radiation within a few minutes of each other , went to breakfast together one morning after and the rest is history, we became friends immediately! Although we may have not known Jesse as long as some, we shared some incredible times together. Jesse's smile was infectious and we loved to hear him laugh. As my husband said he was Jesse's brother from another mother ! We first met Reverend Elaine as Elaine Williams, Jesse's wife, she is one special tough woman and we will always be there for her. Prayers and strength to all the family .

Jesse was the type of person anyone would have loved to befriend. I will miss our conversations and laughter it was only a phone call away. Rest in peace Jesse, my brother.

“ To Reverend Elaine Williams and Family: Tommy and I would like to express our heartfelt condolences. Brother Jesse was a fellow veteran who was committed to serving other veterans with dedication and commitment. He faithfully toiled at the Veteran’s Resources Center in Lawrenceville, Georgia where he counseled, nurtured, and provided support and inspiration to veterans when they needed a compassionate person who understood their predicament. Without a doubt, Brother Jesse inspired countless veterans and provided wise counsel to many others who were fortunate to have known him. Tommy and I are grateful to have known Brother Jesse. He will be truly missed. With honor we commend Brother Jesse’s Honorable Life of Service, Sincerely, Tommy and Darthy Johnson.

“ We considered brother Jesse, apart of the Patton/Reynolds family. He was a man with a lot of wisdom and passion. I reached out to him and asked for his assistance with a homeless veteran, and he didn't hesitate to jump into action. We will always remember his warm smile, caring spirit and his loving nature. To Reverend Elaine and the Williams family, we send our sincere condolences.

We are House 2 House (H2H) Football Club, originating from Chicago and we are known to go to each other's house and watch football games and eat, as well as travel to various football stadiums throughout the country during the football season. We met Jesse almost twenty years ago through Elmore Ragans, a long time member, who worked with Jesse at the Post Office.. He invited Jesse to games and Jesse would be eager to attend as well as host games. Jesse would travel a lot with us also, he went on cruises, Tunica,MS, Jacksonville,FL to name a few. Jesse had no vices, he did not drink or smoke while quite a few of us did both, but that did not deter him from enjoying the true essence of Friendship and Camaraderie. What we learned from our experience with Jesse was that he was Good-Hearted and Genuine. He was a Devoted husband, Great Father and a True Friend. We Love Jesse and are going to miss him a lot.
