“ I know Aunt Jewel was a precious member of the family and dearly loved. I'm glad I got to meet her a couple of times. She was a real inspiration. I know it is comforting to the family to know she is with the Lord whom she loved, and served all her life. There was rejoicing in heaven on her arrival, I am sure.

“ Being the last of the Blanton children I want to thank those who cared for Jewel esp Louise, Liz & her family, & Robin & her family. We are in NJ attending the wedding of our grandson, but we will be thinking of each of you as you celebrate the home going of Jewel. Our love to each of you. Bobbie & Ed Baldwin

“ Aunt Jewel was a jewel and we loved her very much. She taught us to love and trust the Lord in every situation. We will miss her listening ear and words of wisdom, but know that she is walking the streets of Glory with her Mother and my Daddy. ~Lizabeth Blanton Weber

“ I will miss my aunt Jewel for the rest of my life. She was a constant in my life- full of wisdom and advice. Her greatest source of joy was her love for her Savior, and looking for His return. She lived a modest unassuming life, and yet was so giving to others. I can only imagine the time she must be having in Heaven right now, reunited with her beloved mother, and other family members, including my sweet mother who was also her sister. She is now absent from the body, and present with the Lord. My most special aunt and friend, you are HOME. See you soon.

“ My dear Aunt Jewel went Home on 9/21/11 at age 91. The words that come to mind when I think of Aunt Jewel - faithful, Christlike, servant, devoted, loving, and wise. Aunt Jewel spent her life serving others and witnessing to the lost. She lived a modest life, well beneath her means. She gave everything she had to help those in need. Most importantly, she left a legacy that will transcend over time. She always told me stories about her mother (Ma), and how devoted Ma was as a believer in Christ. Jewel continued the legacy her mother left behind by sharing the love of Christ with everyone she knew. I will miss Jewel and our conversations about the Lord, politics, and everything else. She loved my son and he loved her. She, along with my grandmother Jeanne Williams (Nonnie) left a legacy that will never be forgotten. My prayer is that, until Jesus comes back to take believers home, we, our children, grandchildren, and those around us can directly or indirectly be influenced by the unwavering faith of Aunt Jewel and my grandmother. I have never known such servants of Christ, and I will forever be influenced by their servanthip. I remember spending the night at my grandmother's house as a child, and Aunt Jewel would spend the night as well. Not only would they teach me about Christ, but we would also play games, go to church, and they would teach me about anything I wanted to learn. Aunt Jewel would spend hours on the phone with me, patiently listening as I attempted to learn the capitals of each state and country in the world..after all, they did buy me a globe and almanac for Christmas one year, and I did not stop staring at it until I found each capital in the world. Jewel loved my son and the valuable lessons she taught me she was also able to instill in him. My son went to school today and told his teacher he would not be in class tomorrow because his "aunt went to be with the Lord." I pray that Aunt Jewel's legacy will never be left behind and that our successors will know about her and what a beautiful servant of Christ she was. I will miss her but I also cannot wait to see her again. If only everyone was so fortunate to have a women like her in their family. The world would truly be a better place.

his handiwork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard." Psalm 19:1
