“ I knew Jimmie since he was with the Gwinnett DA Office. We basically started with the County at the same time, he with the DA's Office and me with the Police Dept. I worked closely with him for years while he prosecuted some of my narcotics cases we and were able to connect on a personal level as we both were cops from different departments and could relate to each others stories during long nights on T-III cases. Jimmie, I considered you as a friend and still do. I'm very sorry that the pain became so great. Rest easy my friend.

“ It was an honor to have known and worked with Jimmie. I have missed seeing him and talking to him. There were many things I liked about Jimmie, but most of all I liked how he would never let a room be filled with occurred silence. Jimmie always had something to add to a conversation whether it be a funny war story or knowledge from his vast experiences. I pray for peace and comfort for his family.

“ I fondly remember Jimmie and all of the funny stories, the wonderful way he spoke of his wife and daughter, and his bold laughter and smile! Jimmie will be missed. He may never know how he touched our lives, but then again, he didn't do any of it for the acknowledgment. He found joy in telling the stories, in the laughter, in the time spent. Praying for his wife, daughter, family, and the community of friends and colleagues he has left behind. May he rest in eternal peace...
