“ JoAnn will always be my big sister. When we were young in Montreal, we only had each other. We always got along well, though in the early 60's she liked the Beatles while I preferred Elvis. As we got older and our family spread across the US, we did not see each other as much as we should have, but I always knew where JoAnn was and our feelings for each other never diminished. For Jim and everyone who knew her, I'm sure we all can agree that she was a unique, free spirit who was always looking forward, not dwelling in the past. I will miss my big sister, but will always carry a warm memory.

“ Jim, we always loved seeing JoAnn when she came to our Southern Company offices in Blrmingham and after we retired in 2015 we would always get together with her for dinner and a visit before she headed back to Atlanta. One of our fondest memories was when we spent time with you and JoAnn at Dollywood. We felt like celebrities - meeting so many of the Dollywood entertainers that you both knew on a first name passes.

We love you both and JoAnn will be missed by all.

“ I did not have the pleasure of knowing Mrs. Jo Ann very long, but I loved her! She was a very smart and loving woman. She loved Jesus, her husband, gospel music (especially the Kingdom Heirs), her cats, quilting, baseball, and her church. The last time I was with her we watched the Braves beat the Mets while her precious kitties, Fred and Ginger, hung out with us. Until we meet again....

“ To Jo Ann's husband, siblings, family and friends, I worked with Jo Ann her last years at Southern Company. Shee was very passoniate and professional in her training and left a gap in training when she left. We missed her as a friend as well. I can't say anything that will remove the painful gap she is leaving in all of your lives but I hope that the good memories of Jo Ann helps you get thru this sad time. With Christian love and prayers, Tammy Wayman.
