“ My deepest sympathy in the loss of your mother. She was a dear friend and harp student who showed me what true strength and courage looked like. I will forever be grateful for her bright smile, the twinkle in her eyes and her generous loving heart. Her beautiful spirit lives on in all those she touched. I am so sorry I was not able to be there today to play and celebrate her amazing life.

“ Jo Ann was not only my Sunday School teacher, she was one of the sweetest and kindest persons I have ever known. No matter how busy she was with her church, harp ministry, painting, and being a great mother and grandmother to so many, she always found time to show concern to those sick and in need. I have been absent from her class for months due to several surgeries, and other health problems. Most would have given up on me after so long; however, I have a large stack of cards from Jo Ann encouraging me to not give up and assure me that she was praying for me. At this same period of time she was going through many serious health problems. Yet she never complained about her pain or sicknesses, but just kept on caring for the rest of us. I love her very much and will never forget how much she cared for me when I really needed a friend.

To her family, I will continue to pray for you during this difficult time and may God give you some of the same strength and love for others that she gave to all. We love you, Dottie Campbell

“ With profound sadness I heard of Jo Ann's passing. She was such a great gift to Emory Saint Joseph's Hospital via her music therapy and concern for our patients. May God grant her eternal rest and the blessings of a life well lived!

“ Dear Family,

May Jehovah God comfort you during this time of loss. Though there may be little that can be said or done to ease your pain, may you find comfort in knowing that many care and sympathize with your sadness. Always know that Jehovah God is with you to strengthen and guide you. May your trust in his promise of a resurrection bring you peace. - Acts 24:15
