“ When I came on staff with CWA in 1997, the new hires all attended staff school. Leon was our instructor for preparing and presenting arbitration cases at hearing. He was a wonderful teacher and mentor to me, our staff class, and to many other CWA staff reps around the country. I will remember him for his patience and humor, and his vast knowledge of the rules and psychology of arbitration. He has touched many lives, and I will miss him.

“ Leon was my hero as a young boy. He was a second baseman for the Opp-Andy Indians in the middle fifties...a very good ballplayer, a better man.

I'm very sorry for your loss.
