“ Robby was authentic and hilarious, and he touched my life more than I could’ve expected.
My heart goes out to his boys, who he never would’ve chosen to leave. I hope their spark is a reminder of who he was to everyone who loved him. I’m glad there is still a piece of him here in this world.
He spoke of Brandy every time we talked, and I imagine the only comfort for anyone is that they may be together again.

“ To most, he is Robby, but to me, he is John Robert. He was named after our Uncle Johnny and my daddy, Robert. Since our daddies were brothers, John Robert and I shared a special bond. We could laugh, make fun, and joke about our families. We “understood” and “got” how The Blan Brothers (Robert, Johnny, and Bull) operated, with their sister, Frances, trying to keep them in line through the years.
So to say the least, I am going to miss John Robert and all the stories we shared as a family.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Robby as a vendor at Agile. His humor and positivity was contagious. Every interaction I had with Robby left me smiling and laughing. My condolences to his family, friends, colleagues, fellow church members, and everyone he touched. He will be very missed my many. May his memory live on through the legacy he left. My thoughts are with his family, especially his boys, who he spoke of often.

“ I had the privilege of meeting Robby through Agile, and from the very beginning he made a lasting impact on me.

Robby had a gift for putting people at ease, his kindness was genuine, and always had a story to share, usually one that left you laughing or thinking. I'm grateful to have known him and his presence will be deeply missed.

Sending our deepest thoughts and prayers from the team up in Canada.

“ Robby has left a great sadness in our hearts. We didn't expect his early departure from this world, but I trust he is in a better place, with his beloved wife and watching over his children. I am grateful to have had the privilege of knowing him and working with him; he was a wonderful human being. We will miss you dearly; you will always have a place in our hearts!

“ "Some souls leave too soon, yet their love stays behind in every heart they touched" (anonymous)... This was Robby. You couldn't help but love him and the way he always made you laugh with his incredible sense of humor about everything. He was devoted to his boys, our community, and helping Agile grow bigger and better. There will never be another light as bright as his. We will miss you my friend...until we meet again.
