

John Campbell Glover, III

July 31, 2018

John "Johnny" C. Glover III, 70, of Atlanta GA, passed away at home July 31, 2018 surrounded by loved ones. He was born in Charlotte, NC on July 31, 1948 to the late J.C. and Audrey P. Glover. He later resided with his family in Roswell, GA.

John is survived by sons, Cam Glover and wife Toni of Decatur GA, and Brannon Glover and wife Lindsey of Atlanta GA, and sister, Dillie Matthews of Charlotte, NC.

He was a member of the Harding High School Class of 1966 in Charlotte NC where he played all sports. He earned his BBA at Wake Forest University and was a member of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity

A high school standout athlete, a college football and baseball player, John's passion for athletics was passed on to numerous future athletes by coaching little league baseball and basketball. After retiring from sales in the healthcare industry, he enjoyed golfing, spending time with family, and most of all being "Pop" to his four granddaughters.

Private services were held. Memorials may be made to a charity of your choice.

“ So sorry to hear. Reading his obituary reminded me of one of my favorite pairs of running shorts as a teenager. I somehow wound up with a pair of Uncle Johnny's hand-me-down Kappa Sig fraternity gym shorts. They fit me like a glove, and nobody I knew had such a unique pair of shorts. As silly as it may sound, I loved those shorts! Looking back, I was really proud to have an uncle who was a star college football and baseball player at Wake Forest...As a little kid, I remember him making me laugh a lot. One thing I will never forget is his "chocolate-covered ants". Chocolate-covered ants? He was always joking about me eating those delicious ants:) Very sorry for your loss. He will be missed by many. Praying for you all.
