“ Marilyn,

I am so sorry I wasn't able to say something earlier, I only found out this devastating news yesterday. There are times in life that you meet someone that you feel you have known forever and forever touches you, John was that person. While I only worked with John for a couple of years every interaction was a learning experience. He also talked about you, his kids and especially his grandchildren. I am so very, very, very, sorry for your loss. I wish I had of known, I would have found a way to get there for the service. My thoughts are with you.

“ So sorry for your loss! The Bible likens death to an enemy and a sting (1 Cor. 15:26,55,56) because of the pain we feel during this time. Only God fully knows and understands our feelings and emotions. Please pray for "the peace of God that surpasses all understanding to guard your your heart and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus". (Phil. 4:6,7). May fond memories dominate your thoughts. ..Please take care of yourselves, rest and stay nourished.

Sincerely

“ Dear Marilyn and Family, we are deeply saddened by your loss. John was a wonderful neighbor and friend. He was always friendly, full of great stories, and the life of any gathering. John kept us laughing. It was a treat seeing you both any time we had the chance. Whether it was walking the dogs, out to dinner or hanging with friends. Jeannie will never forget the time he saved her from a terrifying snapping turtle that was lodged under our deck. John, you will be greatly missed.

“ We are all so saddened by this news. Being neighbors & friends for over 11 years I am honestly never going to get used to not seeing John outside. We always enjoyed our "easement conversations" which led to 45 minutes or more of humor and sometimes serious talks.. He has watched my kids grow up and always cared for them..They are truly heartbroken about Mr. Haddad passing. John was a great guy, and we will miss him.

John will always be a central figure among the best group of people I've worked with, all of whom are my dearest friends in the business.
