“ John was a good caring friend and a pleasure to work with in Graz. He told it straight with a mood of cooperation. It was as good to have him on our team at work, as it was to have he with us outside of work. He is missed.

“ So sorry to learn of this. John worked for me before his retirement from Chrysler. In fact he joked (at least I think it was a joke) that I was the main reason for him deciding to retire. He was a good friend and sadly over time we lost contact with one another. I know how much his family meant to him as he was always telling me about them. RIP my friend.

“ Bill and John were friends since elementary school and 50 years ago he was best man at our wedding. We shared so many wonderful times together. The kind of times that make your face hurt because you laughed so hard. Our lives were richer for knowing you dear friend. Still holding you in our hearts.

“ When John walked into a room he would light it up with his smile! His laugh was contagious and he was one of the most intelligent men I have ever known. The Retreat at Buford already misses you John!
