

John "Jack" Francis Fay

June 5, 1965 - March 8, 2025

John "Jack" Francis Fay died in Buford, GA, on Saturday, March 8th, 2025. He was born on June 5, 1965, in Kansas City, Missouri, to Margaret "Peggy" Furay Rozman, and Richard Victor Rozman. Jack had an older brother Mike and a younger sister Jonelle. Growing up, Jack moved with his family from Kansas City, to Chicago, New York, Denver, and Minneapolis. He attended Northwestern Military and Naval Academy in Lake Geneva, WI and Edina High School in Minnesota. Jack later graduated with a Theater Degree from the University of Minnesota. Jack loved classic rock, fast cars (Audi), and had an unbelievable gun collection. Like his mother Peggy, and brother Mike, Jack was a giver. He had a big heart. He loved his sister "Jo-Jo", and his nephews Aidan & Elijah Conom. Jack taught Aidan how to drive a manual transmission. He also introduced Aidan & Elijah to fine watches, taught both boys how to safely handle firearms, and taught them how to shoot many different kinds of weapons. Jack loved cigars, whisky, and a good bottle of wine. Jack was a good cook, just like his mother Peggy, and had a love for pedigreed poodles, including Shogun, Kotei, & Miko.

Jack was married to his one true love, Evelyn "Eve" Caram from 1995 to 1999, living in North Dakota and Atlanta.

Jack had a wonderful career as a Clinical Research Analyst (CRA) with multiple firms, assisting with trials of life- changing pharmaceuticals.

Jack had close friends that included Mike Kinane, Glen Wendt, and Jim Grant.

Jack was preceded in death by his mother, Peggy Fay, his father, Richard Rozman, his brother Mike Fay, his grandparents John & Ebie Furay, Frank & Helen Rozman and Aunt "Buffin" Furay. He is survived by his sister Jonelle (Brian) Conom, and nephews Aidan and Elijah Conom.
