“ Who would have good fortune enough to make Ron's acquaintance at DeKalb College back in 1966 and become a friend for life? I was fortunate. We followed the same curriculum through DeKalb and on to Georgia State where he graduated one quarter ahead of me. He and I exchanged correspondence while in the Army at different posts. Over the years there was never a cross word between us and I do not recall him ever speaking angrily to anyone or about anyone. To say he was a gentle man is an understatement. Solid, unpretentious and trustworthy. I miss him.

“ My brother Chris and I were close friends with Ron from our Tucker High School days and also working together at the Big Apple Store in Embry Hills during the summer. Ron and I both graduated from Georgia State University. Over the last 57 years, we have stayed close friends with Ron and Carol. Ron was always a great example of someone who walked with the LORD and his life reflected that walk. He was a super husband, dad, grand dad, Boy Scout Leader and friend. You could always count on Ron when you had a problem. He would jump in with both feet to help. We would have lunch together usually twice a month before he retired from Rollins and you could tell he was a very dedicated employee. We will all miss Ron very much!
