“ I meet John when I was working as a banker many years ago. I was driving in Auburn and saw his last name so I googled him curious if he made it as engineer like he dreamed. I see he did graduate but he lost his life shortly after. My heart breaks for his family. I feel compelled to write here about how all of us at the bank loved talking to John, everytime he came in to visit. He shared with us his passion for the outdoors, learning, and his family. I remember how excited he was when he learned he would be a father. I remember how his laughter and energy up lifted everyone who knew him. He was an incredible human being and heaven sure gained an angel. May God bless his family and friends.

“ There really are no words I can say to make this loss any easier. I will always cherish the time I had with John. Most of the quality time we spent was having a talk in his or my cubical on our regular visits, or lively debates in the breakroom at GSS. Also, lunch outings with John were always like no other. I will leave it at that... As much as I will miss our talks and time spent, I am thankful that you are not suffering anymore. I am glad I got to know you and care for you. Be at peace, my friend. DAWGS, ducks, and guns forever!! Terri

“ Dear Helen:

I can't begin to imagine what you are feeling and I wish I could think of words to help take your pain away. No one can prepare you for a loss, even when it's expected. You're a very strong person Helen and John was blessed to have you taking care of him and at his side always. I hope memories of him will help you in the coming days. Please know that you can seek comfort from your friends and don't ever hesitate to ask me for anything. My thoughts are with you.

Love, Cecilia
