“Roxanne, Aaron, Jason and families we extend our deep sympathy for our great loss. John was a wonderful friend with whom we shared such fine experiences over the years. Whether traveling together or just sitting at his table in Florida over a glass of his favorite scotch the memories will last forever.

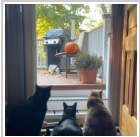

Godspeed, John!

Love,

Jim and Cynthia Fleming

“Uncle John was a wonderful man. I had not seen him in the recent past, but have fond memories of spending time with him and Aunt Roxane at their home in Florida. Lots of good conversation and family events over the years. I'm thankful to have known him. With love, Tara
