“ I hate that we will miss paying our respects... Elijah is working & I'm a chaperone on my daughters field trip Friday & I can't back out or they would have to cancel.

Johnny was such a sweetie to me & the kids (the usual sarcastic fun with Elijah)... he taught me about the history of Sugar Hill, talked about looking forward to retirement, then being out of his mind bored with retirement, & the long hours Frankie put in for Home Depot. He was very accepting & kind to our children with special needs... we never know the response people will give when they're around, but Johnny always bent down & spoke to them face to face, even taught them how to shake hands properly "like a man". He truly was a very special, fun, loving, hilarious friend to our family. ???

Condolences, hugs, & love to Frankie & family... Johnny is already missed.
