

John LeBus Waller

September 24, 2012

John LeBus Waller, 67, died September 24, 2012. He was born September 7, 1945 in Lexington, Kentucky to the late Richard Herndon Waller, Jr. and Bettie LeBus Waller. He attended the Kentucky Military Institute and received his Master's from the University of Louisville in psychology. He was a retired professional tennis umpire. Survivors include his three brothers, Richard H. Waller III and wife Sheila, Chapel Hill, NC, Thomas Bryan Waller and his wife Pamela, Canton, GA and David Reynolds Waller, Frankfort, KY along with three nieces and a nephew. Interment will be at the Battle Grove Cemetery in Cynthiana, KY at a future date. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that any memorials be made to the donor's favorite charity.

Tribute Wall

“ John LeBus Waller

November 08, 2022 at 07:37 PM

“ I'm so sorry to hear about John's passing. As you know, we were really good friends through tennis umpiring. Katy and I also spent time with him every year at his house. We enjoyed getting to know his mother; getting to play bridge with her. I enjoyed being with the rest of the family when I conducted the wedding of his brother. Aside from his being a U of L fan, we enjoyed being around each other a lot. Please know that Katy and I will keep your family in our prayers. Dr. Jim Baughman

Jim Baughman - September 27, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ David,

We were so sorry to hear about your brother. You and your family are in our thoughts.

Fondly,

Jan & Tom Bean

Jan Bean - September 26, 2012 at 12:00 AM