“ I first met John when I was an intern. He was always very helpful and was a great mentor to the other interns and new employees. When new employees joined Chris's team, John would often be the one to show them how things worked. John was always ready to offer feedback, and would tell you exactly what he thought. He offered a lot of feedback and suggestions that led to improvements in the system he was using. It was great to hear that he would be moving to the team to work on a new system, and very sad to hear about what happened. He was an invaluable colleague and will definitely be missed.

“ *Johnny was always the gentle giant! When we were kids he was always so kind, he was always huge, but never a bully- he was always good to everyone because the only thing bigger than his size was his heart! “ I remember the first day I met John at work. He was larger than life. My first thought was he looks like Mr. Incredible! I guess that was true, as he was incredible!

I will always remember the way that he was so proud of his son Chris and the pictures of him on his desk. Both of our children went to Columbus State for college. I met Suzanne and John there on orientation day and always had stories to share about their journey through college.

John is remembered as a friend and colleague. He will be missed!
