“ David, Debbie, Brittany,

We are so sorry to hear about Dusty's passing. He and Jonathan seemed to be on the same path in so many ways, but we always hoped for different outcomes for both of them. These young men had so much to live for but we're not sure they fully grasped that. Maybe they did and that was part of the reason for their struggles. Both are at peace now and I hope that knowledge and time will help with your healing.

“ I grieve with you over your loss. Dusty was friends with my son, Loren Larson, at Parkview. Debbie, when we carpoled for swimming lessons for David and Ian in the early 80s, how could we ever know we would also one day share such grief? My email is susanlar@bellsouth.net. I'm here if you want to talk, or just cry. Susan Larson.

“ Brittany, Debbie, and Family,
I am so very sorry for your loss. It is never easy to lose a loved one, but hopefully knowing that he is at peace will bring some comfort. I'm thinking of all of you during this difficult time. Love and miss you!

“ I am sorry for your lost. When you lose a loved one in death it is a sad occasion; but it is very comforting to know that Jehovah God promises to bring them back to life again through the resurrection (Isa 26:19).
