“ I am so sorry for the loss of a beautiful woman. Every one that knew her knows she never met a stranger. She did not have a mean bone in her body. I hope she is now at peace with her maker

“ This World lost a beautiful woman, but Heaven gained a wonderful angel! Johnnie was one of the most pure women I have ever known. She always did everything in her power to be there for someone if they needed her. Family, friends, anyone in need. She made such a huge impact on my family. I remember the day she & CC moved in next door to me. Little did I know I was about to meet a remarkable woman and dear friend! She was, to this day, the one and only TRUE neighbor I have ever encountered. Over the years my life got busy, I had moved several times and we were not as close as we once were. I regret that so much! My prayers are with her family as they now must heal and learn to live life without her, but live a life as she has taught them to! Peace and love are with all of you!
