“ *Dear Gwen Joanne And Tommy
I can only think of happy things when I think of Aunt Johnnie. She did teach me how to wash dishes and think I was having fun....hahaha She watched over me took care of me and loved me. Hope she knows how much I loved her. My prayers and thought are with ya'll at this time.
Love Always

“ Aunt Johnnie you will be missed by many. We all have our memories of times spent with you. I remember having my first piece of Kentucky Fried Chicken with you. We were at Stone Mountain one night when I was young, but all I really can remember was the chicken. And of course a memory most everyone will have, best chocolate pound cake around. You are forever in my Heart. Love Nita
