“ What a treasure! She was genuinely interested in everyone and everything around her. I have such wonderful memories of our adventures with Jolene, Charlene and Tyler and my children Kyle and Kelly, when they were just toddlers and growing into little independents! We shared stories and advice and lots of laughter..always laughter! I will forever think of her when I see Nutcrackers. Her light still shines brightly, and she is cheering us on with the great cloud of witnesses! My heart is with you all.

“ Her joy and excitement to see you was unmatched. Every family gathering she was always the first to ask how you were doing or just check in on your life, then ask for a hug. When I was first going out with my now husband she was asking me if it was more and at the time I had no clue, but she had seen something in him already. I will never forget her love of the color purple and red. Along with her two sweet chihuahuas that had me loving dogs. Her loss has been felt even from a distance, she is already greatly missed. 💜
