“ I miss you so much. My heart hurts that I cannot call you or hear your voice. All I have are videos and memories of you. All I wish is that you could give me a sign that you were watching over me and our family. We need you back. Your kids need you back. Your friends need you back. Death isn't fair. I hate to say this, but I am in a very dark place in my life.

“ John and Jean, We are not sure if you will see this, but Rita was looking up John's name online and found Jonathan's obituary. We, of course, knew nothing of his passing. We were so saddened to hear of his passing. The last time we saw Jean was in the library in Buford where Jean told Rita that Jonathan had been top of his Navy class(?). We will always remember him fondly. Every year at Christmas, as we take out our Christmas ornaments we tell our son of our Buford neighbors who gave us his "first Christmas" ornament. We will pray for you each year now. Love and Prayers, Mark and Rita Carlton - former Jackson Street neighbors
