“ Every time I saw Papa he'd grab me up and rub his mustache against my face and say gimme some puggy. We used to love pulling his toes when he was napping to wake him up, and he was an amazing Papa and I am going to miss him so very much!!!

“ Uncle Harold took me and Mikki home a many time from the hunting land when we were little. I remember those rides and the times we all spent camping and hunting. I also remember all the meals and good times had at Harold and Peggy's. Sending my love and hugs. They don't make them like Harold any more.
