“ My son was strong and courageous. He was a man of God and his faith in Jesus Christ gave him the strength to fight and persevere through many hardships over the last 20 years. Through it all he never lost his faith or his quick wit to make people laugh. He loved his family and now is reunited with his beloved grandparents. His fight is over but the battle is won. He is with his Savior now and his spirit will live on in the hearts of his loved ones until we see him again in heaven.

Rest in peace my son. Your fight is over. You will be terribly missed but we will celebrate together when we meet again.

I love you with all my heart.

*We've spent time with Josh in & out over the past decade as we have his precious mom, Maile. Circumstances were not always as we all would have desired for Josh & we tried to help best as we could. However, through it all Josh presented himself as a true disciple of Our Lord ❤️🙏 Whether you knew Jesus or not, Josh was gonna let you know where he stood and provide you with biblical verse to support his beliefs 🙏😊🙏 He was a student of the Bible. Josh tried to always be thoughtful, kind & respectful; which is a testament to his parents & grandparents. Josh's good times were really good & his bad times could be really bad; however, he kept his focus on Our Mighty God 🙏 We're going to miss those opportunities of growth & maturity into a beautiful life for Josh here on Earth 💔😞💔 Josh left us way to soon but he didn't leave us forever. We can celebrate his going home to the Father because we know a room in the mansion has already been prepared for him. No doubt you are resting in peace, Josh, and we'll see you when it's "our time".
