“ *John and Jean,
Our prayers and thoughts are with you as you go through this terribly difficult time. John, we remember that you came to our house in Lilburn after Josh was born. God bless Josh as he begins his journey in Heaven.*

“ When we go through these sorrowful times, we can be assured that God does care about us. God promises that he "is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalms 34:18) Nothing can bring us more peace of mind than the inspired words of... "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulations." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) God promises that in the future he..." will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." (Revelation 21:3,4) We can all look forward to the time when "the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." (1 Corinthians 15:26) I hope you find some comfort in these words. Take Care.

“ We met when you were a little boy, and I was fortunate to see you grow into a man. You and I always maintained respect for each other, no matter the situation. We shared laughs and tough situations. You will be sorely missed by me, Justin and Dena. We will see each other again. You are deeply loved.

“ My oldest, longest friendship is with you and Jake. We had some great times and some rough times. I'm sorry I wasn't around more but I am glad for the times we had. From dirt road trips through the woods, bb gun wars, what we thought were huge bike ramps, your blue beretta, McEver bridge, Cypress Hill, The Beasties, the numerous vehicles, camp Fatty, Lake Hartwell, I could go on and on. You will be missed.

“ John and Jean...our hearts are so very sad for your family. You know we remember when Josh was born...the same day as our daughter, Jennifer...same room at Dekalb Medical. We are praying for you during this most difficult, asking God for His peace and comfort for you and your family. May God bless you in the days, weeks and months to come as you cope with this tragic loss. We love and miss you both.

“ Heaven has gained an angel and Josh his wings. He will be greatly missed. He touched many souls with his humor and heart to heart conversations. He was a talented person with a big heart. He has now been lifted of all the struggles endured during life on earth as he begins his new journey in Heaven. I pray for the family that they find peace in this difficult time of grieving. With love always and forever Liz.
