“ I didn't know her personally but my deepest condolences go out to the family. I would also like to share a comforting message from the Bible. It speaks of a time when our loved ones who are asleep in death will be brought back to life here on earth. One instance being at John 5:28,29. I truly hope this can bring a little peace and comfort at this time.

“ Buck, I grieve with you, Jason and extended family in sudden loss of love of your life. Joyce loved her life and was always proud to be Jason's mom and "to stand by her man," becoming an ardent supporter of a change in school, title or team. She was fun, smart, happy, and appreciated every day of her life. The memory of how she handled her biggest challenges will always inspire.

“ Buck, only a few hours ago I learned from Etta that you have lost your adoring wife. How very sad for you and Jason and your extended family. I would certainly have attended the service had I known. You and she were the consummate professionals but you also knew how to enjoy life. Know that I am thinking of you and the many strengths you have to go forward until The Great Reunion believers are promised.

“ Buck, Melissa and family, we offer our deepest sympathy to you at this time. So too like the light of a distant star that continues to light the earth long after the star itself is gone, so too will the light and love your mother showed to so many continue to shine brightly in their hearts, leaving them with fond memories to cherish. Praying that the arms of the ONE who welcomed your mother into Eternal Glory with HIM are the same arms holding and comforting you now as only HE can do. In sympathy, Susan Popwell

“ Joyce was one of the most positive person I have known. She had many health issues, but was not a complainer. We will remember all the laughs and our trip to Italy! You all have been in our lives for a very long time, and we love the Buchanan family.
