“ Dear Richard, Marcus, Nathan and Matthew, and families;

Joyce was a wonderful, spiritual and giving woman. We are very blessed to have had her in our family. I am so sorry for your loss, but so joyful in all that she gave us while here on earth!

Love you!

Debbie

“ We remember the Thanksgivings at Joyce and Richard's house. Joyce worked so hard and made everyone feel welcome. As adults now we realize how much work went into those occasions. In later years at family gatherings, Joyce was always interested in what was going on in our lives and our families and proud to update us on hers. She leaves a great legacy for her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She will be missed. God bless her family, we love you and are praying for you all.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the passing of your love one. I pray you will find comfort in knowing what Jesus says about all those who asleep in death. He tells us that a small number of those who continued the preaching work that he began when he was on the earth, will join him and his heavenly Father, as joint heirs in his Kingdom, to rule over the paradise earth.-Revelation 5:9; 14:1; 20:6. But, the greatest joy will be seeing your deceased love ones again, alive and well; when Jesus resurrect and restore them back to life, to live forever on the paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Just imagine having the same joy that those families had when Jesus restored Lazarus, a twelve year old little girl and the only son of a widow back to life. Even though they died again and now are awaiting a resurrection, what Jesus did was show the power of God's holy spirit and what he will do again in the future.- John 11:11-44; Luke 7:11-15; 8:49-56.
