“ Aunt Joyce- an image of you I will always remember is being out on your riding lawnmower, cutting the grass and telling me that’s your therapy! You were such a strong, independent soul. And a nurturing caregiver... Especially to your sister Betty when she needed you the most. Betty enjoyed your daily phone calls and always looked forward to them. I know she will miss you and she has very good memories of your time together.

“ Aunt Joyce was a great aunt to me. Married to my mama's favorite uncle and my grandmother's baby brother. She was there for me and a safe place for me when she never even knew it. She made some of the best apple fried pies I have EVER eat. Sling blade thinks he came out with mustard and biscuits....well hate to tell him...NOPE aunt Joyce! Not only did she teach me about fried apple pies, mustard biscuits. She also taught me about meatloaf sandwiches, which is still to this day one of my favorites. Kelly and I went to different schools even though we lived so close, but if kelly had a snow day I had a snow day. My heart fills so full thinking back on all these memories...so many more aunt Joyce was good to me. I loved and she protected me. Glad you're home...say hello to mama. LYM❤️

“ Aunt Joyce, I will always remember the warm, delicious aroma of your kitchen. Food was your love language you always made sure everyone at your table was welcome and well fed. I know if there's a kitchen in heaven you will find your way in, grab an apron, and make sure everyone has a heaping plateful.
