

Joyce Torcivia

August 5, 2017

Joyce Torcivia passed away peacefully on August 5, 2017 due to complications from a stroke. She was born Joyce Mary Petrykowski in Milwaukee, Wisconsin on July 3, 1931. She was married to Peter Torcivia for 63 years. They moved to Atlanta in 1962.

Joyce received a BS from the Marquette University School of Speech in 1953. After teaching in the field for several years, she obtained a second degree in Library Science from Georgia State University and served as librarian at Norcross High School for 21 years. She retired in 1991.

Joyce is survived by her husband, Peter, two sons and their wives, Louis and Peggy Torcivia, and Bob and Dawn Torcivia, daughter and husband Beth and Jerry McClellan, grandchildren David Torcivia, Gina Bennett, Michael Torcivia, Shannon Morris, Steven Torcivia, and Nick Torcivia, three great grandchildren, and her sister Claudia Stelter.

Visitation will be held at Flanigan Funeral Home in Buford on Wednesday, August 9, 2017 from 6:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. A funeral mass will be held on Thursday, August 10, 2017 at 1:00 p.m. at Prince of Peace Catholic Church in Flowery Branch. Entombment will follow at Arlington Memorial Park Mausoleum in Sandy Springs, GA.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I had the pleasure of working with Joyce at Norcross High School many years ago. Joyce was so well read she was a valuable resource to faculty and students long before the internet was available. I know she will be greatly missed. But I hope the family finds comfort in knowing she is remembered by those she helped over the years.

“ Oh. Peter we are so sorry for your loss of Joyce. The both of you have such a love of God and your faith is an inspiration to us. We pray that you and your family are comforted in knowing how much we love you and Joyce and how much we will miss Joyce. She was so wonderful and kind to us.
We offer this prayer:
'Lord, we are so grateful for Joyce. We will always deeply treasure her in our hearts and give thanks for everything she gave us. Amen.
