“ In memoriam Juan Ceballos

Conocí al querido Tío Juan allá por 1977. Yo participaba de un intercambio estudiantil en California y él me invitó a visitarlo en Michigan. Fue una experiencia hermosa conocer a su familia y disfrutar de paseos por las Cataratas del Niagara y Toronto con ellos.

Después pasaron muchos años sin vernos. Esporádicamente teníamos alguna llamada telefónica en la que nos poníamos al día. Finalmente, en agosto de 2019, regresó a Argentina y tuve el honor de recibirlo y compartir paseos y charlas con él.

Siempre se mostraba orgulloso de sus hijos y nietos, recordaba anécdotas graciosas, sus historias reflejaban una vida plena, de lucha, de trabajo, de valores, de afectos.

La vida del Tío Juan fue una bendición para todos los que lo conocimos. Amigo fiel, generoso, cercano. Lo vamos a extrañar mucho.

In memoriam Juan Ceballos

I met dear Uncle Juan back in 1977. I was participating in a student exchange in California, and he invited me to visit him in Michigan. It was a beautiful experience meeting his family and enjoying rides to Niagara Falls and Toronto with them.

Then many years passed without seeing each other. Occasionally we would have a phone call to catch up. Finally, in August 2019, he returned to Argentina, and I had the honor of receiving him and sharing walks and talks with him.

He was always proud of his children and grandchildren, he remembered funny anecdotes, and his stories reflected a full life, struggle, work, values, and affections.

Uncle Juan's life was a blessing to all who knew him. Faithful, generous, close friend. We will miss him very much.
