“ To the Brown’s, Margaret, David, Kevin and our heavenly care takers Richard and Dad Robert, there are so many memories to share of our times together. We became family immediately, especially when I saw Dad seek two blondes in the back door, then comes to my mind the night. Judith decided to take a nap in the left lane of interstate 75 North after a night out with the band. Oh so many memories! I spoke with Judy last Thursday and told her I would be up in a week or two, now I wish I had gone right then, you all know me, usually late. Judy and I were like sisters, I will surely miss her Love and prayers, I can imagine there’s a Party Going On in Heaven.... Love to each of you. I am not sure if I will make it for Saturday, I will try. love to All. Eileen
