“ When we go through these sorrowful times, we can be assured that God does care about us. God promises that he "is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalms 34:18) Nothing can bring us more peace of mind than the inspired words of... "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulations." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) God promises that in the future he..." will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." (Revelation 21:3,4) I hope you find comfort in these words.

“ Dearest Judy,

I will miss your sweet smile and gentle spirit, although you had a mighty spirit in your battle against cancer! Whenever I saw you and Patrick there was so much love between you. The two of you always had laughter and no greater love to share.

You are no longer in pain for that am grateful but I know your loved ones and Furbabies will miss you dearly. I know there is a karaoke in heaven.

*Cheers to you sweet lady!

“ I am sadden to hear the news of Judy, she was an inspiration to all that follow her battle with her cancer. I remember when you were born, mama babysat you so I got to see you in you toddler years, blessed to see the person you became and the fighter that you were. Rest in peace sweet Judy and God please comfort her family during this time of grief. Patrick you there by her side through a very tough struggle. I know that you will miss her terrible, but I so grateful she had you to support her through her journey. Remember we will see her again on those street paved with gold, no more pain or suffering she has her new body now.
