“ June has been such a good friend to me. I really felt a connection with her. She had a love for people. She loved her parents, husband, children and grandchildren. There always someone that could pick you up. That was her. She was an excellent sister to Helen. I don't know what she's going to do. I hope ok.. June I loved you.

“ Friends are forever.. We knew June as a childhood playmate and that close relationship lasted a life-time. We went on outings and vacations together before we were parents and later on our children played together. We never lose great friends because wonderful memories of wonderful people last forever.
