“ Renee, Randy and Reggie and family I was so saddened to hear of your daddy's passing. Renee and I spent countless lunch hours telling of the things our daddies had done and laughing our heads off. It was so hard to lose my dad in December 5 years ago, but we all know they are now at peace. Hopefully Junior and Billy will cross each other's paths in heaven and sit down and talk about what wonderful lives they shared with their children and spouses. Renee, give Charli Grace a hug from Miss Debby!

“ Randy, Reggie, and family...
May your entire family be surrounded and comforted by Christ's love and peace at this time. Cherish the many fond memories of your father, hold them close in your heart, and know with confidence that you will one day be reunited with him in a much greater place. The prayers of my family are with yours.

“ Dear Family,
We were so sorry to hear about Junior. I know that he loved his wife, children and grandchildren as much as anyone that I have ever known. He was a kind strong Christian man. We appreciate all that he and Jackie did for my mom. All the icecreams, visits and trips out to eat meant so much to her. I too know how hard it is to bury your Dad at Christmastime. I was only 17 when we burried my Dad, and I still miss him terrible. Keep the memories! Cherish your mom, because she will really need you now. If we can ever help do anything please just let us know. We love you all and yall are in our thoughts and prayers!
