“ Oh the memories back to when we lived in the hills of Sylmar, weekends at the onion, trip to Mexico with Scott and Gary all the way to visits in Georgia. My kids called you about boo they loved you just as much, you even bonded with my cousin Julie way out in arizona. So many phone calls sometimes everyday driving home from work, to Saturday afternoons, even in the middle of the night when one of us needed the other, we were always there for each other no matter what. 45 years contained a lot of memories not near enough to last until I see you again, you were my best friend. Everyone said we looked like sisters and we were, to each other, blood doesn't always make sisters. We had a friendship that went through everything, good and bad, low times and high times. I'll never forget you and will always love you, miss you big time Sister, till I see you again ❤️

“ I will always cherish my memories with you and the fun we had as roommates. Your radiant smile and one of a kind laugh were bright lights in my life In Orlando. When I was at my worst, you lifted me up to be my best . You taught me to laugh at myself instead of feeling sorry for myself. I love you and thank you for the memories. I will never forget you.

“ Aunt Boo,

I am at a loss of the news of your passing one week ago. You made such an impact in my life as a kid growing up in Los Angeles. The fun times we had when we hung out with Tabatha and Little Dana. I also remember when you and Mona were talking in the car and you weren't paying attention when the train was coming and we almost died. I can laugh about it now. But we had some amazing memories and I will never forget you. You were a cool aunt. We lost contact for many years but within the last few years we found each other again. I will cherish the memories and I will miss you.

*Karen, your life was too short, old friend. 💔💔 The few years Jill & I spent with you, Suzie, Lisa & Bobby will be treasured. You were a light-hearted child & I remember your laugh!! 😊
The consolation is knowing your pain is gone, your battle is over. 🙏
May the Lord hold & comfort those who loved you. ❤️ Especially your fur-babies.*
