

Katrina Anne Rickard Brownlee

March 31, 1961 - September 11, 2022

Katrina Anne Rickard Brownlee gained her angel wings on Sunday, September 11th, 2022 at Capstone Hospice in Easley, South Carolina a long battle with dementia. Born in Atlanta, Georgia in March of 1961, Katrina was in her 61st year of life. She called Georgia her home for most of her life living in Asheville, North Carolina in early adulthood.

Katrina's life was shortened by dementia, but those blessed to be touched by her kind spirit understand that the imprint she left on our hearts far exceeded the quantity of her days in this earthly realm.

She attended The Forrest Hills school and church in Atlanta, Georgia before graduating from Berkmar High School in Lilburn, Georgia. She was a member of Countyline Baptist Church in Cumming, Georgia.

Enjoying a lifelong love of music, Katrina was a member of many chorale groups. She was a talented vocalist recognized for her beautiful solo performances as a natural soprano.

She was a sales and finance professional for both banks and private firms. A graduate of Gwinnett Technical College in Lawrenceville, Georgia, she was a certified public accountant who worked for Verner H. Free in Suwanee, Georgia. Her family was arguably her most important achievement in life, and she was a precious daughter, awesome sister, caring wife, and loving mother and grandmother.

Katrina is survived by mother, Eunice Eva (Callahan) Rickard, brother, Ryan

Keith Rickard, daughters, Kandis Lane (Hall) Ridgeway and Kendal Ryan (Hall) Smith, stepson, Aaron Brownlee, first husband, Robert Lee Hall, and ten grandchildren.

Katrina was predeceased by her grandparents, Pansy (Ponder) Callahan and Tom Murray Callahan, Lona (Burlson) Rickard and Thomas Howard Rickard, her father, Roy Earl Rickard, and husband, Michael Brownlee.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, September 17, 2022 at 3:30 PM at Flanigan Funeral Home with Rev. Austin Houston officiating. The family will begin to receive friends and family at 2:30 PM.
