

Kay Heglar Cahill

May 15, 2014

Kay H. Cahill, 75, of Buford, GA, died May 15, 2014. She was preceded in death by her husband of 39 years, John B. Cahill, Jr., and her parents, Esther and Pratt Heglar of Kingsport, TN. Kay was both a talented artist and gifted musician. After studying at art schools in Nashville, TN, and Washington, DC, she operated Kay's Art Studio in Stone Mountain for more than 10 years. Also an accomplished pianist, she played for her church and at weddings and other special events. She and her husband formed the rhythm bones/keyboards duo of Mr. & Mrs. Bones, performing for a range of audiences in the Metro Atlanta area. Kay later teamed up with violinist Andy McGill as Classic Turquoise, entertaining local senior groups with popular music from the 20th century. She is survived by her daughter Donna Cole of High Point, NC; son Christopher Whalen and wife Jan of Suwanee; granddaughter Lindsey Whalen of Suwanee; sister Judy Kinman of Chamblee; stepsons Michael E. Cahill and wife Patricia of Doraville and Patrick G. Cahill and wife Linda of Alpharetta; stepdaughter Cathy C. Andersen and husband David of Haslet, TX; and ten step-grandchildren. The family will receive visitors at Flanigan Funeral Home in Buford, on Monday, May 19 at 6:00 p.m., followed by a memorial service at 7:00. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Kay's honor to the American Kidney Fund.

“ I am so sorry to learn of Kay's passing. She is my cousin and I am Dot Dalton's daughter. I loved Kay and remember lots of fun times being with her when we were growing up at the Greenwood Motel that her mother and daddy owned. She was always so talented. She and Judy mean so much to me and I will miss Kay. Donna and Chris, my heart goes out to you. My mother (Aunt Dot and my Aunt Gloria) loved Kay. She spent lots of nights with us as you all use to come over to swim. My love and prayers go out to all your precious family. I love you. Debbie Dalton Riggs

“ *Comfort for your sorrow,
Courage for each day,
Strength to face this journey,
His Word to light your way,
His peace to fill your heart,
Although you may not understand,
And his love to hold you gently
In the hollow of His hand.*

*May the peace
God's promise offers help to ease your grief today.*

With Sympathy,
