“ Rain stops but you remember
How long? It must not be
Almost three years
When the sun stopped
Shining
Finding
Reasons suddenly
Your shine was even greater than the beast
Rain stops but you remember

“ may my beautiful friend of almost 10 years rest in peace 🍷💜 i will always remember Kayne and her loyal aura. she was an amazing sister, daughter, and classmate. i was honored to know her. we met playing softball and we ended up being in multiple classes together throughout nine school years. she became an inspiration for me to become better. she definitely had an impact on friends and family with her contagious positive energy. i wish our friendship wasn't taken so soon and we could finish all the plans her and i have made.

“ This breaks my heart. We spent so much time with her when she was younger. I took her to see Santa when she was 5 and the look in her eyes when she climbed in Santa's lap will be forever etched in my mind and heart. Tate you know I love you and I'm here if you need me

“ Sweet Kayne. Your smile lit up a room. I laughed so much in the short amount of time I talked to you with my sister. Your energy & attitude I dreamt of. My sister loves you so much. I'll never be able to explain that. I'll never forget you eating that cereal on FaceTime and everyone laughed til I cried! You're so missed, forever. RIP sweet girl. You're so loved.

“ I first meet kayne in my kindergarten class. I remember playing tag and just running around the playground with her. She was an amazing person. She didn't give a crap what people thought about her. She didn't care where you lived, how much money you had or what you looked like. She treated you the way you treated her.

Jimmy - November 25, 2021 at 05:42 PM

“ to the person that didn't give a crap what people thought about her. I love you forever and I can't wait to meet again. you always put effort in to make everyone else smile each morning. everyone that ever came around you was the happiest person. your smile could have brightened the darkest room. Tate & Angela, my heart is breaking for the both of you and the rest of your family. Kayne was the most awesome little girl. I think we all met when she was under 5 years old. She and Merle were so much fun to hang out with at the camp. My thoughts and prayers are with both of you and your family. Judy

This is the first time I have been able to write here, I always read the paragraphs and I just think ill wake up and it won't be real. Kayne was one of the only people who was there for me through everything, she was the only person who never judged me, and there is not a day that goes by I don't think of you. You helped me when my family was never there, you helped me when my dad died, and you saved my life, I wish I could just have one more day where we play werewolves, and chase Merle around the house. I want to ride four-wheelers again and hang out playing pool in my basement. I want me and Leah and you to go to Disney again. You helped me escape from my life, and always new how to make me laugh. I will forever cherish the memories we had together. I wish things could be different, and I wish you could have seen how many people truly loved you and miss you. I was and will always be so proud of you and I hope one day you will be proud of me too. I love you Kayne, and I will forever miss you, and be eternally grateful to live for you. -Your "sister" Kasslyn
