“ I don't have lots of memories of my father, but I cherish each one that I do have. He was open-minded and accepting of any of the weird or eccentric things I liked, which I feel blessed with. From our conversations, I found that I got his sense of humor as well. Yes, there were negative times as well, but that is what happens in a family and helps us appreciate each other all the more better. I'm grateful to God for giving me some memories with my father that I can keep in my heart.

Dad, I will miss you. I am so sorry for things that was not said that should have been. I... really will miss calling and receiving your calls. My mother and I apologize for not being able to be there to send you off in person, but please know all you have as family and friends will miss you and hope you are resting well. I know that you're no longer in pain and you are with your mother, father, and sister. We'll miss you always. Be in peace.

~With all aloha, Anika and June

My condolence to you and your family. I knew your father for long time. I grew up with him in Omaha, Nebraska. He was like my older brother and heard him talk about you and June lots of times. He was very excited about visiting you in Hawaii few years ago and I remember you and your mom visited here in Omaha and stayed in my house when you were baby. Again, sorry for your loss.

“ Almost 30 years ago, I met him as a younger brother in law.

He was my sister's husband. Their marriage lasted only few years; however, in that time, they produced and parented two of the loveliest people I will ever know, their daughters Tesia and Carnia . Sometimes with pain and resentment, sometimes with sadness and sympathy, I spent more than a decade with him.

Then at one moment, He was no longer my family, and very rarely heard of him, and the saddest and most incredible the last word on him was his death.

He was a dedicated son first and foremost.

He treasured his mother and embraced every moment with her. For many years he cared for his mother, and after his mother's death I vaguely know the loss he would have felt.

Now that he started his new life, he said goodbye to the world so quickly.

I dedicate to him the poem "Tears and Smiles" by Cahill Gibran.

And pass as a cloud over the mountain of sorrow
And the plains of joy to meet the breeze of death
And return whence it came.

On behalf of our entire family here and abroad we wish you farewell.
Rest in perfect peace.

*I'm so sorry for your loss.
Words can't be expressed how saddest we are to hear of your loss.
Your father, who left for heaven too soon, knows how much you guys miss and mourn him.
And he knows that the people who loved him the most than anyone else in the world were two beautiful and noble daughters Tesia and Carnea.
I'll pray for you!*
