“ I have only met Kelley and her husband Greg on one occasion. My son and their daughter are friends. It has been truly inspirational to read Greg's post about her strength, fight, and determination. My prayers go up for the family. Kayla is such a sweet girl. Know that she is always with you in your heart and may it bring you guidance, peace and comfort in the important milestone years that lie ahead.

God Bless

“ When I first met Kelley about 10 years ago at the City of Sugar Hill, we seemed to become friends very quickly. I found out very soon there after that was the way most everyone else described their relationship with her also. Her smile was genuine and infectious. She had a gentleness and calmness that made you feel so comfortable around her. I truly believe God allows you to have relationships in your life to help you see the good in other people, to help you be positive in life, to understand how important it is to take one day at a time and to love the people in your life. She was special and I am thankful for the opportunity to know her. Now she can truly smile.....forever.

“ I worked with Kelley for many years, her journey with cancer actually brought us closer than ever, the past few years, and no doubt about it, I am going to miss her. Kelley was a very proud, personal, beautiful woman. She has been such and inspiration to me and others through her cancer journey and she has touched SO MANY lives, a true angel of god she is. She has taught me more about faith, strength, hope, determination, and humbled my soul. What a great teacher and gift she has given us all, I am truly going to miss my friend Kelley, but I am so glad to have known her, and I thank her for what she has taught me. The lives she has touched will keep her memory alive for YEARS to come, something her family can be VERY proud of. My thoughts and prayers go out to each of you.

“ Greg, I am so sorry to hear about Kelley's passing - I have not kept in touch and I am sorry for that - but I have been praying for her and praying for you as you took care of her. We had some fun times working for Rymon and Rod years ago, we were happy for her when she went to the City of Sugar Hill - I know they will miss her - because I am sure she did a great job for them. I feel blessed to have been her friend - she was a great person - of course you know that already! I am leaving to go out of town on Friday afternoon and won't be able to go to her funeral, but please know that you and your family will be in my prayers!!
