

Kenneth "Ken" Ryan Bagwell

November 5, 1969 - August 3, 2025

Kenneth "Ken" Ryan Bagwell, 55 of Bethlehem, passed away Sunday, August 3, 2025 after an eight-month battle with pancreatic cancer. He was a native of Buford and a graduate of North Gwinnett High School. Ken earned an associate's degree from Gwinnett College and was an Information Technology Architect for the Department of Georgia Drivers Services. He was a fourteen-year member of The Bethlehem First United Methodist Church. Ken was known for his quick-witted humor, loyalty and his extreme love of family and spending time with them.

Ken was preceded in death by his brothers, Mitchell James and Brett Jason Bagwell. He is survived by his loving wife of 32 years, Angie Daniel Bagwell of Bethlehem; his parents, Kenneth and Jean Hulseley Bagwell of Buford; three children, Austin Bagwell of Atlanta and Brett and Anna Bagwell of Bethlehem; a brother, Joey Bagwell (Erika) of Auburn and a sister, Rhonda Moses (Jim) of Buford.

A celebration of Ken's life will be held Saturday, August 23, 2025 at 1:00 PM in the sanctuary of Bethlehem First United Methodist Church with Rev. Frank Bernat officiating. The family will receive friends from 11:00 AM until service time at the church. A reception will be held following the service.
