“ Goodbye and safe eternal travels to my cousin and early friend. We were good buddies as kids and you loved torturing me with your spiders and weird and creepy critters. You did teach me to like a snake and for that I am always thinking of you when I get a king snake living in my yard. It means more now and I hope its you coming back to say HI! Come back often. It's been a long time... but we have always seem to be on the same page when we did connect.

I promise to stay in touch with your mom and my cousin Cliff, who I admire more every day. And I will keep in my heart your last call to me (12 years ago) and the loving message you delivered so eloquently. It has stayed with me and always will.

Part of your message about was how you loved my father and it is true he loved you and Cliff as his sons.

Go into the eternal Gar. let's meet again.

love from your cousin Susan who you called Sue.
