“ Where do I begin? So many years of memories. Kenny kept a lot of people laughing for a long time. We're all going to miss that! Did your Dad actually play the piano. All some of us recall was whenever we were attending some function at Tobin grammar school, we kids would go to basement, Kenny would get right to the piano & start playing the boogie woogie!!! Unbelievable how well he played it!! One friend just texted me to ask if I remembered that. Said never could forget. We were probably about 12 yrs old. He absolutely loved being the class clown! Even at our recent monthly luncheons, he was still that little boy making all laugh. He still had that devilish grin. I could go on & on; but I'll stop for now. I miss you terribly already, Kenneth (he knew I only called him that when I was dead serious!!). Who on earth will I pick on now? Please give your Mom & mine a big hug for me. You know my love & prayers are with you through eternity!! Tears are raining down my face. . Jackie

“ My sincerest sympathy to all of Ken's family. I, too, am a Reavis graduate and remember Ken as a very nice and good looking classmate. My last acquaintance with him was at a Reavis luncheon at the Golden Corral Buffet when he visited the Chicago area. I have been praying for him since we heard he was hospitalized. May his soul Rest In Peace and may the Lord comfort all of you who loved him.

*I'm never at a loss for words, but I am right now!
You know when someone's been in your life for soooo many years, we never think about losing them; but when we do, it hits us like a ton of bricks!! Your Dad was always a smart***; but in a good way. He just loved*
