Rest In Peace, Kim. I met Kim in the '70s when he was with Webtron. He was kind, honest, and upright. Over the years he always found the time to tell me how much he loved his wife. Kim always had a smile. Looking forward to renewing our friendship in the future. Jim Milam

“ Will miss one of my poker buddies and while I have only gotten to know Kim the last 18 months, I considered him a good friend. He was funny and loved his family. I will miss him! Peace and comfort to Robin, their children and grandchildren! RIP my friend!

“ One foggy morning we were Invited to Kim’s and Robin’s boat to take part of cruise on Lake Lanier. Lake was beautiful and quiet as we cruised through in a formation of couple dozen boats. Kim was very proud of his boat and took such good care of it. We always teased him to come over and give that same loving care to old vessel. I hope Kim is there at the lake of eternal waters cruising by and waving at us.
