

Kimberly A. Collins

April 21, 2012

Kimberly A. Collins, of Amesbury and Buford, Ga., passed away suddenly on Saturday April 21. She was born in Salem, Ma., and was the daughter of the late Richard and Constance (Casey) Collins.

Known to her friends as "Bimberly, Bim, and Bimbella", Kim had a passion for motorcycles, music and computers. She attended Amesbury schools and was a graduate of AHS. She loved living in the South, the warm weather and the kindness of a stranger saying hello. Once you became a friend of Kim's, you were a friend for life. Special "K" could always bring a smile to your face or make you laugh when you were down. A beloved sister, aunt and friend, she had a deep love for her family, especially her nieces and nephews, and she will be missed by all.

She is survived by her sister, Cynthia LaCarubba and her companion Paul Perkins of Amesbury, her brother Timothy Collins and his wife Dawn of Mendham, NJ, her stepbrother John Stephens and his wife Allison of Buford, Ga. three nieces, six nephews and her furry pals Jake, Elwood, Lucy, Choco and Wesley. Memorial Service will be Sunday, April 29, 2012 at 4:00 p.m. in the Chapel of Flanigan Funeral Home with Mrs. Kelly King speaking. The family will receive friends at the funeral home on Sunday from 3:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m.

Tribute Wall

“ Kimberly A. Collins

November 08, 2022 at 07:37 PM