

Kimberly Maylum Leger

July 28, 1971 - April 23, 2022

The world lost a little bit of its light on April 23, 2022, when Kimberly Maylum Leger passed at the age of 50 after a vicious battle against cancer.

There are many words that could describe Kim. She was a wife, a mother, a sister, a daughter, a teacher, a warrior, and a friend. She was a lot of things to many people, but she always left an impact on the people who crossed her path.

Kim faced many obstacles during her time in this world, and often had to endure tremendous amounts of pain in daily life due to her battle with Crohn's disease. Despite the hardship she experienced, Kim's jovial, bright spirit always shone through.

Few things could bring Kim more joy than time with her horses at the stable or with her family at the lake. She finally fulfilled her lifelong dream of becoming a horse owner, and not a moment went by without it filling her with absolute joy. This passion introduced her to new friends and countless horse-filled adventures.

Kim is survived by her husband, Chris; her children, Hunter, Cheyanne, and Wyatt; her parents, Dana and David; her dogs, Bella, Shasta, Duke, and Whinny, as well as her beloved horse, Big Ben.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests you donate to one of the following organizations in Kim's Memory:

“ My condolences to all Kim's family and friends. I went to high school with Kim and was fortunate to have her accompany me to the homecoming dance my senior year. I bring out my high school dance photos every year to share with my high school students. We lost touch after high school but reconnected on Facebook. I enjoyed all her photos with her family. Her smile lit up a room. Rest easy my friend. Until we meet again.

“ I first met Kim in High School. We were both athletes but I instantly knew just watching her she was different. She was so intriguing yet so full of life! I never knew Kim was fighting a battle against Crohn’s disease so early on. But that’s because Kim didn’t want me to feel sorry for her or treat her differently. That’s what made Kim so special, she always wanted to do things her way and for people not to feel sorry for her or treat her differently. After High School we lost contact for a while while I was serving in the Military overseas. However, when we reconnected, I found out she was fighting a battle against Crohn’s disease. Kim never once wanted me to feel sorry for her, she just wanted the pain to go away. Throughout the years, Kim has helped me deal with my problems and never once asking for something in return. Kim is and always will be an amazing person, mother, wife, daughter and friend! I truly was blessed to have know Kim as a friend. I will never forget you Kim! Til we meet again friend.
