“ I am a cousin from Washington, Ga. Wilkes County and was told of Lane's going to be with our Lord by Ann Petty, another cousin. My sister Opal Echols knew Lane but I did not ever have the pleasure of meeting him, my loss. I read his bio and see he was a fine and brilliant man! Handsome, too! Has those beautiful Norman blue eyes! My prayers are for all the members of the family and extended family, may God give you all His Presence and Peace! Amelia Ann Norman

“ I am so sorry for your loss. No one should have to endure the pain of losing someone so dear. We were never meant to experience pain, grow old and die. (Ecclesiastes 3:11) It was not until sin was committed by our first parents, Adam and Eve, that death was introduced to the human family.(Romans 5:12) We can give thanks to our Heavenly Father who lovingly sent his only begotten son to pay the ransom sacrifice for our sins. Because of this we will have the opportunity to see and hold loved ones that have fallen asleep in death in the very near future! You will be able to hold Lane again and you will never have to fear ever saying goodbye. This is a promise from God! (John 3:16; John 5:28, 29) Jw.org

“ Lane and I got to know each other in our senior year of highschool, eventually connecting further on a trip we shared to Florida together in Pensacola and Panama City. Since that time, we continued to stay in touch each year - in person and on the phone. He was always a great person, with funny stories and who loved to laugh, and was always there when I needed him. I will miss talking with him and send all my prayers to Cheryl, their daughter and grandkids, and Lane's brothers and the rest of his family and friends. God bless you all. I'm sorry I can't get up to Atlanta in time for the funeral this Friday, but my thoughts and prayers are with you. Rest in Peace Lane, and comfort to all who knew him.

“ My family moved to Georgia in September of 1993. Moving from north New Jersey to north Georgia at that time was on par with interplanetary travel. Like going into the barin Star Wars.

I had known Lane through work. He and his wife Cheryl, took my wife Christine and I under their collective arm and gave us a social life, and an extended family. We were "Normans".

For the next eight to ten years we spent one or more weekend days with Lane and Cheryl at least 40 weeks out of the year. Company and family Christmas Parties, cookouts, Super Bowl Parties, Birthdays, anniversaries, weddings, the full Monty.

The connection remained and remains to the present. Life takes us in different directions, but we will never forget the love we were shown by Lane and his family in an a most important time for us.

God's speed brother. Enjoy the journey.

My prayers go out to Lane's family and friends all who greatly loved and respected him. Now he is with our Lord and Savior away from the pain. “*lane was a great mentor that helped me professionally in many ways. One of the highlights was running as his vice-president when he ran for president of the National Service Dealers Association.
